Notes from the boss.....

After beating Halifax Town here a fortnight ago I said we had a hard week ahead of us. . . and so it proved.

We faced two away games in four days and I suppose the way things went we had to be disappointed with both results.

At Scunthorpe in the midweek game we looked as if we had sealed three points but in the end we had to settle for just the one. At Torquay it was even worse because we never got going at all in the first half, and although we might have got something for our second half efforts, we came away with nothing.

So we have got to bounce back with maximum points this afternoon.

Hartlepool will give us a hard time of it, though. They have performed well in their last three games and currently they are going very well. It is going to be a big test for us but hopefully we can get back on the rails again.

Looking at results in Division Four so far, it is clear to see that things haven't settled down into any sort of pattern yet. The Division is very open indeed. What has pleased me, though, is that the teams we have played and the teams I have watched have tried to play good football.

That is pleasing because I regard ourselves as a footballing team, not a particularly physical side and that has got to be a plus, especially from the supporters' point of view.

Jeff Chandler is due in hospital on Tuesday for a major operation on his knee. That will repair the damage but Jeff realises that it's going to be a long haul before he is playing again.

So if any of you bump into Jeff when he is up and about again, just give him an encouraging pat on the back to keep his spirits up.

HARTLEPOOL UNITED

Hartlepool United believe that 'home grown' players will be the lifeblood of the Club in future years.

After a bad start last season, the inability to win enough games at home put the Club in a dire situation. They were stuck in the lower half of the Fourth Division with survival at stake.

Despite one or two good runs Hartlepool drew too many games for comfort and with the three point system it made the difference between being in the bottom eight of the Division and a possible play off place.

The Club would have preferred but took heart from the fact that they were not beaten by any of the four clubs promoted. The team also had a respectable away record. Like many teams in the lower regions of the Football League, Hartlepool believe they must concentrate on a youth policy.

AROUND THE LEAGUES!

The Littlewoods Cup matches staged in mid week produced usual Cup surprises and a few teams will be happy to have a second chance in the return leg.

Our exit in Round One gave the players a chance to shake off any early season knocks.

Last Saturday in the Barclays League Division One, early leaders Q.P.R. suffered their first defeat of the season and highest crowd of the day, 38,439 attended Goodison Park to witness Everton's win against Man. Utd. Sunday's 'live' game saw Liverpool outplay Newcastle, Mirandinha and all at St. James Park and looked to be in Championship mood.

In Division 2 leaders Bradford City had to comeback from a goal down against Blackburn to secure the three points. Oldham's 1-0 defeat at Hull places them in the bottom four.

An Imri Varadi hat trick secured the points for Man. City at the expense of Stoke.

In Division 3 Blackpool's trip to Brentford proved fruitless, while Bury overcame Aldershot thanks to a Liam Robinson effort. Preston's scoreless draw against Rotherham is perhaps an indication that they may slowly be finding their feet in the higher flight. Wigan leapt into top spot with a fine away win at Walsall.

Burnley's unexpected home defeat cost them the leadership of Division 4. Bolton born Mark Hunt earned Rochdale a valuable away point at high flying Exeter, but Asa Hartford's Stockport failed to hold Wolves at Edgeley Park.

Scarborough took the scalp of Swansea to become new leaders.

NEIL MIDGLEY

1987 CUP FINAL REFEREE PART 2

From shipping in Manchester to 'whistling' at Wembley - that's been the pattern of Neil Midgley's fortunes.

On leaving school Neil started work on Manchester Docks but in search of better pay he followed his mates to Chloride Batteries and started as a labourer. Since then he's been 'through the mill' as he is now Original Equipment National Sales Manager.

As a referee he has officiated in 31 different Countries, including the Finland v Czechoslovakia (European Nations Cup), Denhag v Ujpest Dozsa (European Cup), Benfica v Olympiakos (European Cup) at Barneaubeau Stadium for Real Madrid v Cologne and the list goes on.

He tells an amusing story from Peking. Neil said, "It was at the Peoples Stadium where there were 80,000 all seated, there was no cheering - just clapping. It sounded like a pan of chips frying."

Being a referee is very demanding and Neil uses his holidays to officiate International matches. He is grateful to his good wife and to his employers for the backing they have given him.

Of all the places Neil has been to he says, "Wembley is the best, it has tradition." He also revealed another secret ambition. "I have always wanted to meet Royalty", he continued, "and last May I had the privilege of meeting the Duchess of Kent at the FA Cup Final". Only days before taking charge of that game he took time off to officiate a local U15's schoolboys game at Burnden Park, at the risk of injury with the big occasion in sight.

Talking about the Final Neil said, "just before the teams were led out and the crowd were singing 'Abide With Me', I had a T.V. in the changing room and myself and the linesmen actually took part." When complimented on the way he officiated the game Neil said, "I could see straight away that both teams wanted to play football, so why have confrontation when by using common sense you can have co-operation." For his part in the game Neil received the statutory £50 match fee and a 'winners' medal but he would have done it for nothing.

Neil Midgley learned his trade by watching top ref's in action, the likes of Bob Matthewson, Pat Partridge, Jack Clough, Ken Dagnall and still now takes a spectator role at 60 to 70 games a season. He recommends anyone to have a go at refereeing but they must be prepared to learn the trade. "There's nothing to stop an ex-pro," he added, "but it's probably fair comment to assume that they're not willing to start at the bottom. They are willing to run teams but don't seem to take up refereeing."

TON-UP VERA!

Vera McEnearney was bowled over when she learned she had won £100 on NIGHTLINE.

At the time of her win she had been a member for only 12 weeks after being persuaded to join by Julie Percy, stewardess at Back 'oth Bank Bowling Club.

It's not the first time that the McEnearney's have won with the Wanderers. Husband Derek won £200 on the "3 and Easy" scheme which used to be operated at Burnden.

Vera said, "it's just come at the right time. We wanted a new exhaust for the car."

The win prompted daughter Gayle to join NIGHTLINE and last week she won a £5 consolation.

THE THINGS YOU SAY!

We admire you fanatical fans. Whilst canvassing for new CASH-LINE agents this week we came into contact with Pete Davies who revealed that when he was 16 years old he joined H.M. Forces but found he was missing the Wanderers so much that he resigned.

Then there was Eddie Ainsworth a fork lift truck driver who keeps a week of his holidays "floating" so that he can take in mid-week away games.

Can you better this?

FLASH BACK

5 YEARS AGO. 14th September 1982. Bolton qualified for the second round of the League Cup, then known as the Milk Cup, for the first time in five years by defeating Carlisle 4-0 at Burnden, and by 7-3 on aggregate. Tony Henry fired home the first goal and Mike Doyle followed up with the second for the Wanderers 100th League Cup goal. Carlisle defender, Dave Rushbury, was sent off in the 48th minute for deliberate hand ball, Tony Henry converting the spot kick for Bolton's third goal and Ian Moores completed the scoring with a 68th minute header.

18th September 1982. League leaders Wolves won 1-0 at Burnden thanks to a Billy Livingstone goal five minutes from time. 25th September 1982. A 52nd minute goal from Bob Cumming sent the Wanderers to their fourth League defeat in a row at Grimsby Town.

10 YEARS AGO. 24th September 1977. Bolton lost their unbeaten record, thanks to a late goal from Crystal Palace's Nicky Chatterton, at Selhurst Park. They conceded their first away goal of the season in the 21st minute when Rachid Harkouk beat Jim McDonagh from inside the penalty area but bounced back within a minute when Neil Whatmore grabbed his fifth goal of the season. In the 72nd minute Palace midfielder man George Graham was sent off after a foul on Roy Greaves, but despite their handicap, the Londoners struck the winner.

1st October 1977. Frank Worthington, on loan from Leicester City, scored a debut goal against Stoke City at Burnden. He got the Wanderers back into the game in the 22nd minute after Howard Kendall had given Stoke the lead two minutes earlier.

15 YEARS AGO. 19th September 1972. The Wanderers took a point from a 1-1 draw at Bristol Rovers thanks to a penalty, two minutes from time, converted by Garry Jones. The referee awarded the kick when Peter Nicholson was brought down by 'keeper, Dick Shepperd, and it equalised a 77th minute goal from Bruce Bannister. 23rd September 1972. It took two late goals for the Wanderers to win the points from Tranmere Rovers at Burnden. For eighty minutes Rovers had kept a defensive stranglehold on the game with Charlie Wright a spectator in the Wanderers goal. Then Ralph Wright was fouled by Fred Molyneux and Garry Jones converted his third penalty of the season. Two minutes later Ralph Wright broke clear and smashed the ball past the advancing Tommy Lawrence in the Rovers goal.

RESERVES NEWS

BOLTON WANDERERS RES 2 WEST BROMWICH ALBION RES 1 17th SEPTEMBER 1987

The Wanderers Reserves climbed into one of the four promotion places when two late goals sunk an Albion side that had looked the more dangerous for most of the game.

Ryan Price, in the Wanderers goal, produced a number of good saves to keep out Albion in the first half, but was a little lucky when Tony Kelly's 25 yard free kick struck the bar just before half time.

Ian Stevens came nearest to breaking the deadlock for Bolton during the first period, his first time angled volley striking a post, the ball then bouncing to safety.

Both Adrian Foster and Tony Kelly went close for the visitor's before Foster fired them in front in the 58th minute. It was a clinical goal that started in their own half and four passes later Foster converted the easiest of chances from close range.

Albion appeared to have the points sewn up, as it was they who were dictating the game, but a slice of luck completely turned the game Bolton's way. Fourteen minutes were remaining when a hopeful lob into the Albion penalty area, by Paul Hughes, was headed into his own net by centre half Kevin Steggles.

This fired Bolton into their best period of the game but it wasn't until three minutes from time that the winning goal was struck.

Ian Callaghan and Steve Elliott combined on the edge of the penalty area to push the ball into the path of Nicky Brookman who headed home from close in to register his second goal of the season.

Team: Price, Hughes, Brown, Callaghan, Darby, Winstanley, Booth, Neal, Stevens, Elliott, Brookman. Subs. Banks for Neal, Burrows for Booth.

EVERY CLOUD HAS A SILVER LINING!

How can full time football clubs survive on gates that average less than 2,000 a match. Well our friends from Hartlepool could well give us a few clues. A lot of hard work and dedication by officials and supporters go a long way to provide this.

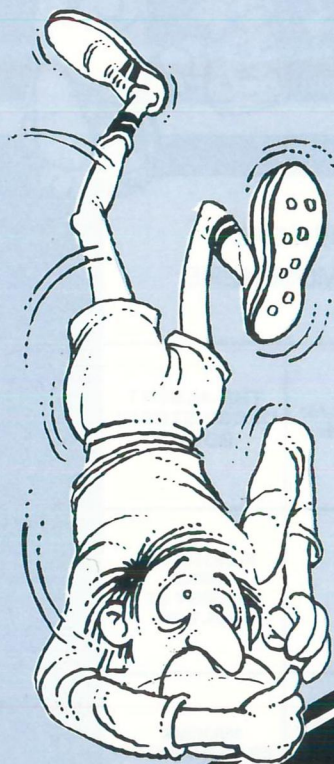

Looking at Scarborough though, it might well be just a question of time before other clubs decide to go part-time just as many of the Scottish clubs do. Income these days are mainly provided by home games but over-heads usually leave nothing left of the takings and many of the League clubs would be out of business if they did not have a successful Commercial Department.

Certainly here at Bolton that applies without the likes of Lifeline and the various lotterys. The Wanderers couldn't survive with the tremendous upkeep of Burnden. Being a large stadium the expense to keep it up to scratch is enormous.

The competition from non-League clubs has now got even tougher and now that we're only a matter of weeks away from the first round of the FA Cup, how many third and fourth division clubs are dreading drawing a non-League team. Wolves for certain wont after losing to Chorley and neither will Burnley who were humbled at Telford.

The gap between the fourth and G.M. Conference League is now closer than ever and in the coming seasons we will probably see lots of changes in status. Lincoln have spent heavily to try and regain League status immediately but it will not be easy because the likes of Altrincham, Barnet and Weymouth want the same goal as well.

The old pals act has now been terminated, otherwise Lincoln and not Scarborough would still be a League club and for other fourth division clubs in the other half their season would be over by Christmas, but now they can't relax until the season is over.

Burnden Park News

HB ELECTRONICS JUNIOR WHITES.

The Junior Whites got their season underway, when they held the first of the monthly meetings in the Executive Club on Monday, September 7th. Neil Whatmore has accepted the Presidents role this season and it is with Neil's co-operation that individual players attend each meeting in rotation. John Thomas was the first guest.

Outside Sports activity will once again be available to Junior Whites every Friday evening in the Leisure Complex at the rear of Burnden Park. There are various activities for boys and girls.

Ball Boys for home games are selected from the Junior Whites, as are Match Day mascots.

The Junior Whites have their own football team squad, managed by Steve Rothwell, who organises regular Friday night coaching sessions.

A new feature has been introduced this season; on Saturday match days there are creche sessions. These are supervised by

Sgt. Malcolm Wood and operate from the gymnasium from 2 pm. Crisps and soft drinks etc. are on sale to members with discounted match day tickets on sale to Junior Whites at 30p reduction on the normal £1.80 Great Lever end price. The Junior Whites are escorted into the game just prior to kick off and fully supervised during the game. After the full time whistle they return to the gymnasium where children can be collected up to 5 pm if necessary. This ensures the youngsters are safe and well looked after at Burnden Park.

By being a Junior White all these facilities are available plus the normal Christmas Party which is scheduled for Sunday, December 13th and a probable trip to an away game or a visit to a pantomime or Blackpool illuminations.

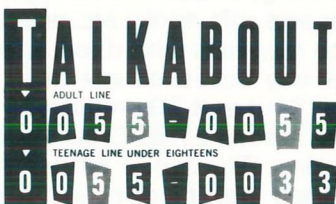

Mr Keith Harris at HB Electronics is keen to see Junior Whites progress and sponsors their activities. New members can enrol at the Commercial Office for an enrolment fee of £2.50 along with two passport size photographs.

REFLECTIONS

We welcome Hartlepool to Burnden Park today for their first ever visit. The only previous game between the two sides took place in August 1981 when the Wanderers, who were then in the second division, won a friendly 3-2 in the North East.

The first half was goalless but after the break Hartlepool twice went ahead only for Bolton to step up a gear and finish up winners.

Keith Houchen gave the home side the lead in the 53rd minute with a scrambled goal but two minutes later a Dusan Nikolic cross was headed home by Neil Whatmore.

In the 63rd minute, another scramble ended with David Howard rounding Dennis Peacock, for Hartlepool's second, but seventeen years old Wayne Foster equalised with his first goal for the Wanderers, after being on the field for only two minutes.

Neil Whatmore scored Bolton's winner nine minutes from time, turning sharply on the edge of the box and beating his marker by back-heeling the ball past him, then sending a low angled drive into the corner of the net.

The two teams were:

Bolton: McDonagh, Nicholson, Brennan, Reid, Jones, Gowling, Nikolic, Cantello, Thomas, Whatmore, Bennett. Subs: Peacock, Carter, Thompson, Foster (all used).

Hartlepool: Burleigh, Brown, Stimpson, Hogan, Bird, Linighan, Staff, Linacre, Johnson, Houchen, Harding. Subs: Hampton, Howard, Sweeney, (all used).

EXPERIENCED!

The current Wanderers squad could lay claim to being one of the most experienced in the division with the side that took to the field in the draw at Scunthorpe having played over 2500 League games between them.

The list is as follows with substitute appearances being included.

D. Felgate 343 – D. Scott 371 – D. Crombie 364 – S. Thompson 165 – M. Came 110 – D. Sutton 383 – G. Henshaw 57 – W. Joyce 182 – T. Morgan 296 – J. Thomas 234 – R. Savage 126.

Don't forget that there are also four players with over 1500 games between them in the Wanderers squad, namely: S. Elliott 334 – P. Neal 691 – J. Chandler 274 – N. Whatmore 436.

Well done to Robbie Savage on opening his goalscoring account for the Wanderers at Torquay with a crack left foot strike. Many Wanderers supporters may remember the last goal he scored in a game involving Bolton, converting a penalty for Bournemouth, in last season's controversial defeat at Dean Court.

OUT & ABOUT

PAYING THE PENALTY!

With only eight League games completed so far this term we have had one penalty awarded in our favour and two against and the latter have been in the last two games at Scunthorpe and Torquay respectively.

Both proved to be costly and the one at Scunthorpe in particular since it came in the 93rd minute which proved to be a saviour for the opposition.

Looking around the Barclays League last weekend, a total of 102 goals were scored, ten of which were converted from the penalty spot and of course there may have been some that were missed, of which we have no record. That's an incredible 10% of the total goals.

Could it be that this season, along with the re-introduction of the card system that referees are taking a tougher line on defenders infringing the Rules.

The situation may have been just a one-off but it will be interesting to have another check this weekend.

OVER TO YOU, SON!

When Radio Piccadilly recently ran an 'air auction' it was all in aid of the charity, 'New Heart, New Start'.

Various companies around the Greater Manchester area donated prizes to be won and it was left to the listener to bid for the prize.

Owner of Winsford Windows, Gary Whittaker bid £160 for a days training with the players of Bolton Wanderers and it was the highest bid. Mr Whittaker turned the prize over to one of his employees Ian Hossack, a 28 year old midfielder with North West Counties League side Glossop. Ian was taken completely by surprise but thoroughly enjoyed the session on Burnden itself.

Our guest said, "all the lads made me feel at home and I would like to thank everyone for the welcome and wish Bolton all the best this season and hope they go up. The Club shouldn't be in the Fourth Division."

By coincidence Ian lives only four doors away from our own Mark Came but he wasn't there on the day for his wife has just given birth to their third child and now Mark has a hat trick of boys.

SPOTLIGHT

Steve Elliott

Under the Spotlight this week is Steve Elliott, a £25,000 signing from Walsall, and now in his second season at Burnden Park.

He was born at Haltwhistle — where the hecks that you may ask. Well it's a village between Carlisle and Newcastle and lies in the shadows of Hadrians Wall. It was whilst he was playing for his school team that Steve was spotted by a Nottingham Forest scout working in the North East and he signed apprentice for Forest straight from school.

Under the watchful eye of Brian Clough he made steady progress through the ranks and the day came when he was chosen for the first team. But appearances were limited. Steve said, "I will always remember Brian Clough for giving me my first chance in League football, but with the likes of Gary Birtles, Trevor Francis and Tony Woodcock all competing for places the opposition was fierce."

It was during Steve's spell at Forest that they won the League Championship. His biggest honour to date is that he possesses a League Cup Winners medal, he was sub. when Forest beat Liverpool.

At 5' 11½" and 11 stone 12 lbs he was the ideal build for Nobby Stiles who paid £95,000 for his signature to take Steve to Preston. Goalscoring consistency primed moves to Luton and Walsall. Biggest influence on his career was his family and particularly his father. Steve recalls, "there was always a pair of boots and a ball there."

He is married to Margaret and lives at Clayton le Woods. Away from football Steve enjoys a game of golf and eating out but dislikes bad mannered people. His musical tastes are Whitney Houston and Level 42 with Black Adder and Only Fools and Horses as his favourite TV Programmes. As a player for the future he pinpoints Mark Winstanley (alias Percy). All due to a programme misprint he is nicknamed 'Sam' a name that was started by Dave Felgate and because a mate used to play for Hamilton Accies, 'Sam' chooses them as his favourite other team, although his favourite away Ground is Liverpool.
